From the desk of PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Greetings.

As the world becomes flatter, and technology blurs the dimensions of both distance and time, it is also our endeavor to connect each of our members, creating both opportunity and fellowship. It is in this spirit, we are happy to present to you the latest edition of CONNEXIONS, the FAFAI Members' Directory, for you to browse, refer and connect.

I have observed that apart from the sheer learning that FAFAI Seminars and Workshops provide, they are extremely important networking events, where members are able to meet and greet, connect and share, and hence it is also our effort to create and facilitate such interactions as well. While the pandemic may have placed restrictions on our in-persons meetings, technology and the human spirit, though not necessarily in that order, have enabled us to overcome much of these restrictions, as we adapt to the new normal, using ever newer communication tools and platforms.

FAFAI too has embraced the new normal with online events, webinars and seminars, and while we all look forward to meeting each other in person very soon, we hope that this publication, produced the old-fashioned way in print, and is also available in the digital form on the FAFAI Website for ease of retrieval and search, will be yet another useful tool for us to revive or make new CONNEXIONS.

With greetings and warm regards for the New Year from me and all my committee members.

For us, it's hard to grow alone.

Natural ingredient solutions. That's what we do. But something incredible happens when we grow. Farmers learn and earn more. The world eat and drinks healthier. Restaurants and juice shops sell more. Medicines cure a lot more. Smiles become wider, Dreams become bigger and the world is a happier place to be in. We call it growing, naturally. And it can't be done alone.
